

LARRY KING ORCHESTRA PLAYS AT THE NEW YEARS EVE WEDDING OF NASCAR STAR KYLE BUSCH & SAMANTHA SARCIANELLA

People JANUARY 17, 2011

Style Network special to air on March 5, 2011

Kyle Busch & Samantha Sarcinella

Wed on New Year's Eve in Chicago, the NASCAR driver, 25, and the psychology grad student, 24, rang in 2011 with... mac-and-cheese from the box. "Kyle said, 'Don't mess with the recipe,'" says planner Susan Cordogan, who arranged for the dish to be served to 300 guests after midnight. "That was one of his only wishes." Fans on Twitter chose the first-dance song (Edwin McCain's "I Could Not Ask for More"), but the wedding gown—featuring beads and ostrich and peacock feathers—was the bride's notion alone, created by e-mailing sketches with Dubai-based designer Michael Cinco. The couple, who met in 2007 when she modeled at a racetrack, will share the event with fans on a Style Network show March 5. "Most people say as bride and groom you don't really get to enjoy your wedding," says the new Mrs. Busch. "But it was the most fun we've ever had."

“Most people say as bride and groom you don't get to really enjoy your wedding. But it was the most fun we've ever had.”
 — Mrs. Busch